Madrid, September 23, N. S.

THE King's Birth-day will be celebrated here To-morrow, for which great Preparations are already made at Court; his Majesty then enters into the 37th Year of his Age. This Court seems now resolved to push its Enterprize against the Algerines.

Naples, Sept. 23, N. S. On Friday last the Blood of St. Januarius, Protector of this Kingdom, was exposed in the usual Manner, and liquified in less than 35 Minutes, to the great Joy of the whole City, who were immediately acquainted with it by a Discharge of the Cannon of all the Fortresses. The same Day his Majesty attended at Divine Service in the Church of St. Januarius, as did her Majesty, who advances happily in her Pregnancy, towards the Evening. Great Desertions have happened lately from the Regiments in Garrison in this City, insomuch that 60 Soldiers have gone off in a Night.

Genoa, September 29, N. S. The Corsairs of Barbary having lately infested these Seas pretty much, two Xebecks and an armed Bark are sailed from this Port, in order to give them Chace.

Plaisance, September 29, N. S. The Ducal Palaces at Parma and in this City are fitting up with great Diligence for the Reception of the Infanta, who is soon expected here from Versailles.

Prague, October 1, N. S. The Elector of Bavaria, accompanied by several Lords of his Court, arrived in this City the 28th past incognito; the next Day he heard divine Service in the Metropolitan Church, and it is expected he will set out this Evening on his Return to Munich.

Breslau, October, 3, N. S. On Wednesday last a prodigious Swarm of Locusts was several Hours passing over this City, and went off without settling. Numbers of them dropt down in this Neighbourhood, but were soon destroyed by the Ravens and Crows.

Breslau, October 8, N. S. Within these few Days past a Fire broke out in the Castle of Goschutz, belonging to Count Reichenback, which burnt with such Violence, that it was soon reduced to Ashes with all its curious Furniture; which Loss is computed at 150,000 Crowns.

Copenhagen, October 4, N. S. Yesterday an extraordinary Council was held at Friedensbourg, where a magnificent Feast will be given on Monday next on Occasion of the Birth of the Princess Amelia, and the next Day the whole Court will return to this City.

Vienna, October 4, N. S. Count Bentinck has had several Conferences with the Ministers of State since his Arrival, and is greatly distinguished by their Imperial Majesties. The Troops which were lately encamped at Salenau, Pilsen and Konigsgratz, continue going into their Winter Quarters. General Count Brown designs to set out in a few Days for his Government of Transilvania. This Day being the Feast of St. Francis, whose Name the Emperor bears, the same will be celebrated with great Solemnity at Schonbrun.

Vienna, October 6, N. S. They continue to raise Recruits in all the Queen's Hereditary Countries, in order to compleat the Regiments which are in Italy.

Dresden, October 7, N. S. The King is set out for St. Hubertsbourg to take the Diversion of Hunting, from whence 'tis expected he will go to Leipsick.

Hambourg, October 7, N. S. The Marquess de Grimaldi, who arrived here a few Days ago from Berlin, set out this Morning for Stockholm, where he is to reside in Quality of Minister from the Court of Spain.

Berlin, October 7, N. S. Last Thursday the Dutchess of Brunswick Lunebourg was safely delivered of a Princess, for which publick Thanks have been given in all the Churches of this City. This Day the Baron de Greiffenheim, formerly Minister

H651

Miniſter from the Court of Sweden to that of Dreſden, arrived here; he is going to the Court of Ruſſia in the room of the late Baron Hopken. The Great Chancellor Baron de Cocceii is returned hither from the Journey he has taken to Oſtfrize. We have received Advice that the Dutcheſs of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle, his Majeſty's Siſter, was happily delivered of a Princeſs on the 2d Inſtant.

Berlin, October 11, N. S. The Marqueſs de Varoli, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of France, having received, on the 4th of this Month, an Expreſs from Stockholm, with Diſpatches from the Marqueſs de Havrincourt, he ſet out immediately for Potzdam, and communicated their Contents to the King, who gave him a particular Audience on this Occaſion; after which he was in Conference with the Miniſters of State, and on the 5th he returned to this Place, and diſpatched a Courier for Paris.

Oſnabrug, October 8, N. S. The Locuſts continuing to do vaſt Damage in Franconia and other Places, and even to advance towards the North Weſt of Germany, publick Prayers have been put up in this Place, to beg Almighty God to defend this Country from the great Danger with which it is threatened from thoſe devouring Inſects. The Elector of Cologn, who is now taking the Diverſion of Hunting at Clemenſwert, is expected ſoon in this City; and as it is imagined that he will ſtay here ſome Time, great Preparations are making for his Reception.

Leipſick, October 11, N. S. The King and Queen of Poland with the Prince Royal and his Spouſe, arrived here on the 8th Inſtant, and propoſe ſtaying all the Time of the Fair.

Hague, October 15, N. S. The Court is not expected to return from Loo till the Beginning of next Month; and the rather, as we are informed that the Anniverſary of the Birth of the Princeſs of Orange will be celebrated there on the 2d. The Greffier Fagel, M. Hop, Secretary of the Council of State, M. Vereliſt and M. Back, have all taken a Tour to the Caſtle of Loo to pay a Viſit to their moſt Serene Highneſſes. M. Haren will ſet out Tomorrow or next Day for Bruſſels. The States of this Province ſeparated on the 11th. Lieutenant General du Faget van Aſſendelft, Lord of Heynenoort, whom the Prince of Orange had ſent into Zealand to regulate the Reduction of the Troops, according to the late Reſolution of their High Mightineſſes, is returned hither. The Miniſter of the Landgrave of Heſſe Darmſtadt having ſigned a Convention with the Deputies of the Council of State for the Return of the two Regiments, which were in the Service of this State during the late War, into their own Country, 'tis expected they will be ſetting forward in a few Days.

Hague, October 17, N. S. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange having appointed Count Naſſau, Governor of Heuſden, to be Colonel and Captain of a Regiment of Horſe, vacant by the Death of Lieutenant-General Schagen, he has taken the uſual Oath before the Council of State for that Command. The Regiment of Foot of General Pretorius, now in Garriſon at Gertruydenbourg, is ordered to march from thence to Namur, as is alſo that of Lieutenant General Guy which is now at Boiſleduc.

Whitehall, October 4.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Charles Hay, Eſq; commonly called Lord Charles Hay,

George Boſcawen, Eſq; and

The Right Honourable Francis Earl of Effingham, to be his Majeſty's Aids du Camp.

The King has been pleaſed to preſent Peter Simon, Clerk, to the Vicaridge of Welton, in the County and Dioceſe of York, vacant by the Death of Richard Lowther, the laſt Incumbent.

At the General Quarter Seſſion of the Peace held at Lancaſter, in and for the County Palatine of Lancaſter, the third Day of October, in the Three and twentieth Year of King George the Second's Reign.

WHEREAS it appeareth to this Court, that the Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle now rages in the Counties of Cheſter and York, near adjoining to the Southern and Eaſtern Parts of this County, and alſo in ſeveral Parts of this County, by Reaſon whereof it is greatly feared that the ſaid Diſtemper will ſpread itſelf into all or moſt Parts thereof, which is very large, and abounds in Horned Cattle, unleſs ſpeedy Care be taken, as much as poſſible, to prevent the ſame; Therefore, in order to prevent ſuch Spreading of the ſaid Diſtemper, and in Purſuance of the Powers and Authorities given as well by his Majeſty's Order in Council, as by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made, This Court doth order and direct, That no Fair or Market, or other publick Place or Places of Sale, ſhall be held or kept within this County, for the Sale of any Horned Cattle, from this Inſtant until the ninth Day of January next; and that no Perſon or Perſons ſhall or do preſume to drive, ſend or remove, or cauſe to be driven, ſent or removed, any Horned Cattle to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place or Places of Sale in this County, within the Time before-mentioned for prohibiting the holding of Fairs, Markets, or other publick Place or Places of Sale for horned Cattle, under the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned, ſet or impoſed by his Majeſty's ſaid Order in Council, or the ſaid Acts of Parliament, or any of them in that Caſe made. And for the notifying this Order it is further directed, that the ſame be forthwith inſerted in The London Gazette, and alſo in The London Evening Poſt, The Whitehall Evening Poſt, and Cheſter, Manchester, Kendall, and Preſton News Papers.

By especial Order of Court,

Arnold Mort,

Deputy Clerk of the Peace in and for the ſaid County.
